

annabelle award – Stella Contemporary Fashion Awards 2006

Conditions of participation

Do you dream of tasting the air of fashion studios for one year in big cities like Berlin, London, Milan or Paris? Of gaining an insight into the work of internationally renowned designers, from the creation of a collection to the staging of a fashion show? Of improving your skills, contributing your ideas and inspiration by working on new creations and of enlarging your network within the world of fashion.

The annabelle award as part of the Stella Contemporary Fashion Awards makes your dream come true!

The annabelle award is intended for Swiss fashion school graduates or young fashion designers who are interested in a professional activity in the business of fashion. You should either have completed an education as fashion designer or an apprenticeship as dressmaker/tailor in Switzerland, you are engaged/working in Switzerland and will be free to start the internship from spring 2007.

How do you apply?

Send a portfolio including the presentation of your latest collection and CV (curriculum vitae) to Annabelle (entry deadline: Friday, August 18 2006). Feel free to choose your personally preferred form of presentation for the portfolio.

Furthermore please add a short summary which describes your motivation (“Why do I like to start an internship abroad?”).
